

LEGAL & INDUSTRIAL OFFICER

The Australian Manufacturing Workers' Union has a full time vacant position for an experienced Legal & Industrial Officer based in our Adelaide Office.

The successful applicant will demonstrate:

- Expertise in preparing and presenting industrial relations, employment and discrimination law cases before Fair Work Australia, other tribunals and the Magistrates Court.
- Well developed oral skills to advocate on behalf of our members in the appropriate legal system.
- Experience in providing written reports, submissions and legal advice.
- Ability to negotiate with employers on our members behalf on industrial and employment issues.
- Well developed research skills to monitor and report on industrial law developments.
- Demonstrated commitment to trade unionism and social justice principles.
- An ability to work cooperatively with a range of stakeholders both internal and external.
- Ability to maintain and progress State Awards.

The successful applicant will report to the State Secretary and be required to work closely with other state and national officials on occasion. A demonstrated commitment to trade unionism and social justice is essential.

Applicants should be able to demonstrate relevant skills, tertiary qualifications or experience in a related field.

Legal qualifications are desirable and an Administration to practice Law a necessity.

Applications in writing including resume and references can be forwarded by close of business, Friday 5th March 2010 to:

John Camillo, AMWU State Secretary
GPO Box 1051, Adelaide SA 5001
Fax: 8431 2548 Email; amwusa@amwu.asn.au

The AMWU is an equal opportunity employer.