

POSITION VACANT – NT ORGANISER

The Australian Services Union (ASU) is looking for a dynamic, experienced Organiser to be based in Darwin.

The ASU represents workers in local government, energy, community services, finance, call centres, airlines and the legal industry and private sector administrative workers.

Applicants need to demonstrate:

- experience in modern organising techniques and an ability to cover all aspects of the Organising role;
- some industrial knowledge and capacity to develop this;
- a commitment to working with First Nations people and communities.

The majority of work will be based in Darwin, Palmerston and surrounding areas, but some travel to regional centres and remote communities is required.

Appropriate training and mentoring will be available as required. Some travel to Adelaide (head office) is required.

A current driver's licence is essential. The union provides a 4WD vehicle that is yours to use on weekends and holidays to explore the Territory.

Salary is based on experience. Financial assistance is available if you relocate from interstate.

A position description can be obtained by contacting Pauline on 08 8363 1322 or at union@asu-sant.asn.au

Applications including names and contact details of three referees should be addressed to:
